

A HOUSE WITH A HISTORY

This convent was established in secret in 1686,
when Catholicism was illegal.

It is home to the religious order now known as the Congregation of Jesus.

This order opened the first school for girls in the country in 1669- the second in this house- all while hiding their true identity.

It has survived to become the oldest living convent in the UK and around 200 schools can trace their beginnings to this house.

Discover more in our exhibition: Mon to Sat, 10am to 5pm
(last entry at 4pm)
